

Hairfax N.S.

July 4th 1935

Just a sketch of memory History of Hopewell. Hopewell Church was build in the year of 1856. It was erected by the members, at that time, and the friends and good people of the Hopewell community, namely Mr Washington Smith, ^{Mr} A. M. Ruth, ⁸² Mr Washington Goeth ^{or} Mr W. J. Spraker, and many others of those ^{christian} people of Hopewell. A wonderful church of great ministers of the Gospel, namely, Rev J. T. Sweatt. Rev Henry Shuman Rev
J. J. Preacher, Rev George Hinard
Rev Jonas Trawell, Rev J. J. Mix, Rev M. H. Shuman, ^{Rev J. Morrison} Rev W. H. Dowling. These are some of the ministers of the earlier life of Hopewell Church, who have done a great work in helping save ^{preying} souls, & conducting those glorious protracted meetings, when so many loved ones joined the church and were baptized in black creek waters, and since those days many worthy ministers, have done and are doing a great work at Hopewell. Rev J. W. ^{the minister} Middleton, and the members & friends of Hopewell are so faithful in doing such a great and wonderful work and still keeping up Dear old Hopewell Church. Their Sunday School cant be excelled. Through the pastor members & friends earnest and — faithful work. 2

I'll recall the names of some of the members friends & visitors of Hopewell who have long ago passed on to reap their reward. Namely The Youmans, The Parrells, The Goetts, The Peeples, The Gills, The Smiths, The Nixon, The Trowell, The Shumans, The Muligons, The Marces, The Chislms, ^{the} Firesters, The Didoachs, The Keath, The Speakers, The Lawens, The Whitefords, The Googes, The Bowers, The Girms, The Kertz, The Hiers, The Bishop, The Goodings, The Craps, The Yeviners, The Pies, The Longs, The Browns, The Hoovers, The Kieds, The Rosiers, Dr H. W. C. Folk, & family, The Dowling, The Tulens, ^{the} Fitts, The Palls, The Mitsons, ^{THE SHARPES} The Carters, ^{the} Johnson ^{the allmays} The Hadwinn & also Mrs Hitt Folk & Mrs Getzinger both singing school Professors who taught singing school at Hopewell. A church I love being, a church my parents loved who sleep in the cemetery by its side I also love the ground on which the church is builded which recall sweet memories of meeting & greeting loved ones of long ago. By The only surviving child of my parents J. T. & Mrs Dowling Emma D. Sparks.