Given Name Index

PREFACE

This Wood Family Index has been in the making for over one hundred years. It names many Wood, and Woods, Families in America, especially the earliest Wood colonists, and many thousands of their descendants; therefore, you, of almost any Wood Family in America, may locate some of your ancestors in this Wood Family Given Name Index. Begun about 1825 by Alfred Wood of Middleborough, Massachusetts, continued by Beder Wood until 1914, and perfected by Miss Nora B. Wood, of Seattle, Washington, this Wood Family Index contains the largest printed record in existence of Wood-Woods Families in the United States. I feel that credit for most of this Wood Family Index belongs to Miss Nora Bethel Wood, b. 1860, formerly of Seattle, Washington. In 1946, I obtained by purchase from Mr. Elijah Francis Atwood, formerly of Sisseton, South Dakota, the famous Wood Family collection left to him by Miss Nora B. Wood. I contributed some data and devoted twenty years to arranging this Wood Family Index for your pleasure and convenience.

The Wood Name. I do not know the origin of our ancient Anglo-Saxon name—Wood. Long before 1400 A.D., or even before 1203, it had become quite a common name in England, although a relatively few members of the family even then continued to cling to some more ancient spelling, such as Wode, Wodde, Whod, Woode, at Wodde, A Wood, de Wood, Atte Wode, Wodes, Whode, Whods. Woodd, de la Wode, de Bosco, etc. One story is that long ago a fellow raised a large family in the woods, so people began to call that rugged individualist, the-man-who-lives-in-the-woods, or At Ye Wode. The above names are most frequently found among ancient records of England and Scotland, and it is my opinion that the name "Woods" usually confined to Ireland, is a misspelling of the name of Wood.

Leland N. (3) and his brother George E. Wood, who compiled a Wood Genealogy, claimed that John Wood, son of Nicholas and Olive Wood, of County Surrey, England, had four sons, Harmon (Boston), Stephen, Henry and John. I am convinced that the latter three emigrated to Plymouth before 1641. John Wood, born in 1614, arrived at Plymouth, about 1635, on the Matthew.

I became interested in this hobby in 1921, thanks to my father's sister, Mary E. Wood (1855-1930), of Plymouth, Massachusetts, and to my mother's sister, Susan Rebecca Byrne (1873-1943), of Gaithersburg, Maryland. Later I continued this labor of love for my six children: Professor Sumner Wood, Jr., B.S. Yale, 1961; M.D. Harvard, 1954, Major, U.S.A.F. M.C., Captain David Eliab Wood, A.B. Harvard, 1952; M.D. Johns Hopkins, 1955; Judson Rawlings Wood, A.B. Emory and Henry College, 1956; LL.B. Univ. of Maryland Law School, 1959; Wriley Creath Angel Wood, A.B. Harvard, 1958, Brooks Crosby Byrne Wood, A.B. Emory and Henry College, 1964, and the joy of my life, my daughter, Peggy Octavia Wood, Sweet Briar College, Class of 1968.

(32) Dau. of Isaac Sumner and Minnie (Browning) Wood; B. 1879, at Boston, Mass., and died of cancer, 1939, in New York City. Isaac Sumner Wood (1852-1904) M. 1st Minnie L. Browning, a cousin of the poet, b. ----, m. 1876, d. 1883; and, on June 15, 1899, he married 2d. Octavia (Byrne), and had John Sumner Wood, b. March 2, 1902. See: John (785); Sumner (6, 7); Isaac (106), and Mary Leftwich Rawlings Wood (750) and Peggy Angel Wood (1)

ISAAC SUMNER WOOD (6)

Isaac Sumner Wood's father Eliab (2), as a common seaman, had gone to Newfoundland, for cod fish, fishing trips that often kept him at sea for months; later he had caulked vessels until his eyes could stand that work no longer, and he finally labored for a living as a truck gardener, so he - Eliab Wood, Jr., wanted his most promising son - Isaac Sumner Wood (106), to seek a less hazardous living at Boston, "the Hub of the Universe." The family talked about the idea for over a year and finally the decision was made, shoes and clothes were gotten together, and sixteen year old Isaac Sumner Wood went off to Boston in search of work. See: Sumner

(6 and 7). Many called him "Isaac" (106).

Aunt Mary used to add, with a smile, that the long discussed matter of Isaac's future solved itself in black molasses. Isaac had completed the first two years of high school and was working in a grocery store near Chiltonville when one day a pretty girl came to the store for a jar of molasses. Molasses poured slowly and that day Isaac, being well acquainted with the old time expression - "slow as molasses", left the molasses running into the jar, and returned to talk to the Plymouth maid. Suddenly he remembered the slow running glue-like stuff and turned away from the fascinating girl only to find that the sticky black molasses had run all over the floor - a whole barrel full. The storekeeper could smell the mess as he tied his horse in front of his store, so in he rushed, dismissed Isaac, and then proceeded to stand over the boy until the floor had been cleaned; however, it left a stain which remained there for many years as a monument to that boy, Isaac Sumner Wood. From black molasses, Isaac went to Boston.

He sold newspapers on the streets of Boston, went to school at night and obtained a job as a janitor boy in the Boston office of a shoe manufacturing firm of which he, in time, became a partner and owner. About 1900 the firm's name was changed to Huckins, Temple and Wood, with its office in Boston and its shoe factory in Milford, Massachusetts. The boot and shoe industry of Massachusetts had passed through four stages of production - "Home Stage, Handicraft Stage, Domestic Stage" and, by 1855, it had passed into the Factory Stage, all before Isaac Sumner Wood was born, on December 15, 1852, at Plymouth, Massachusetts.

When father, as a sixteen year old teenager, entered the shoe industry of New England, his firm was called Fogg and Houghton, then Fogg, Houghton and Coolidge, then Houghton, Coolidge & Co., then Clapp, Huckins and Temple and then Huckins, Temple and Wood, with their Boston office located at 24-26 High Street, near the United States Hotel, and their shoe factory located in Milford, Mass., by 1902.

Isaac Sumner Wood, in 1876, married (1st) Minnie L. Browning, a cousin of the poet, and they had one child, a daughter, Amy (1879-1939), who died of cancer in New York City. The Browning family was very kind to me while I was a student at Harvard, and from what I heard, and the pictures I saw, I came to realize that father's first wife was a pretty, kind and emotionally happy person who spoke gently at all times; a blessed person, and a tender and vital part of her husband's life, just like Mary Rawlings Wood. Minnie L. Browning, died in 1883, leaving Amy, age four, and father, a widower at age thirty-one. Amy was raised by her aunts and her father. My Mary passed on into Heaven at Christmas-time, in 1935, leaving me a widower at age thirty-three, and Sumner, age six, David, age five, and Judson, age one and a half, with no relative able to do very much for any of us four drifting souls; and then Peggy Angel came to our rescue. Two more generous, beloved girls never lived, than my two dear wives, Mary and Peggy, to whom I dedicate this Wood Family Index.

JOHN SUMNER WOOD, SR.

I received my Harvard Degree, on June 18, 1925, and we rushed home. I immediately began working at 1413 Eye Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., for the District Title Company, at $60 per month. By June 18, 1925 I had saved $1000.00. My goal in life was to become self-supporting so that Mary and I could get married. The head of that company promised I would be raised to $100 per month on January 1, 1926; but he broke his promise, and, in a few months, I went to work for some fancy named mortgage firm and was soon earning several times the $150 per month one then needed to become self-supporting. By December 31, 1935, Mary-dear and I had saved - during a depression - $43,650, of which we had inherited $13,000.00.

Mary and I had met on August 4, 1922, been engaged for three years and we were married on August 4, 1926, at the then Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church, (now the Francis Asbury Church), Washington, D.C., where she for years had been the kindergarten teacher with Glennie Miller. Mary was twenty-three and I twenty-four.

After a short and modest honeymoon at Grove Park Inn, Ashville, N.C., we returned home, and I went with the firm of Douglass and Phillips to organize their mortgage department but in a month I found that I was worth far more to them than they were worth to me, so I told them exactly that; and my youthful arrogance infuriated Mr. Douglass although Mr. Phillips knew I was a valuable person to keep. Mr. Phillips and Mr. Douglass got into an argument over my announcement that I was to be paid a half of all I earned. Neither of those men wanted me to quit and finally Mr. Douglass made some concession, whereupon I reminded him that I had made an announcement and not an offer for him to raise or lower. Much to their surprise I put on my hat, shook hands and walked out on my own. I believe it was on October 11, 1926, that I went into business, at age 24, for myself, with a little office in room 500, The Phillips Building, 929 - 15 Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., and by August 4, 1927 I had earned a total of $16,169.53, by August 4, 1928 I earned $11,594.16, by August 4, 1929 I earned, for that third year, $7,560.00, etc.

I even tried to run my business in Washington, D.C., and also attend Harvard Law School, which so undermined my health, that I had to retire for several years in order to recover. By 1930 I was back in the race of life working fourteen hours a day, seven days a week until December 31, 1935, when my partner, Mary-dear, was called to Heaven.

Dear Boys, (Sumner Wood, Sr., to his five sons)

My father, Isaac Sumner Wood (1852-1904), was good to me in that he wanted me to go to Harvard. He never hid his talents under a basket of Plymouth fish. From an uneducated, barefooted store boy, he went to the then "Hub of the Universe", and by emotional self-control he developed his talents to become a partner in the shoe manufacturing firm of Huckings, Tempel and Wood, of Boston and Milford. He knew that Harvard could help me climb the ladder of life, so his ambition for me I have carried to my children. Mother J was equally as ambitious for me to become a Harvard man, and a self-supporting professional man. We want to carry the first Sumner Wood's message to you - The Wood Family of the Tenth Generation in America.

My Mother's father, the grandson of a Chief Justice and great grandson of a Governor of Delaware, refused to go to college.

My father disliked the odor of a poor fisherman on a ship loaded with fish. He disliked caulking ships. He disliked selling black molasses in a Chiltonville village store. He was not satisfied. He was an ambitious teenager. He could not afford to go to Harvard, so his father, Eliab Wood, Jr., got together enough money for shoes and clothes, and sent Isaac Sumner

Wood, at age sixteen, to Boston where he earned, by hard study at night school, his way to the top of the industrial ladder.

You boys can see that my Mother abhors ignorant and inexcusable poverty. In her adolescence, at age sixteen, she went to live with her older sister, Aunt Ida Miller, and to seek an education in Boston. When she had completed her education at Burdett, a Boston college for women, she, a most beautiful girl, obtained employment at the shoe factory office of Houghton, Clapp and Huckins, where father was the intellectual guide of his firm through three financial panics and much labor turmoil.

Just remember that your Grandmother worked up from a Maryland log cabin, and that your Grandfather sold papers on the streets of Boston and then worked up from a janitor boy in the factory of Fogg, Houghton and Coolidge, Boston, Mass., to become a member of that firm, under the name of Huckins, Temple and Wood, of Boston and Milford, Mass. At about that same age I was a runner at the American Security and Trust Company, Washington, D.C.

So what? That is a question each of you will have to answer, and live with your answer. I have carried my father's message to you, and I have planned the financing of college and professional school education, for each of you. What more could you expect of your father?

Love,

Father, S.B. Harvard, 1925;
LL.B. Law School of G.W.U.

(Letter from Prof. Rich to Captain Sumner Wood, Jr.)

Dear Sumner, (7 this Index)

I have wanted to write you long before this, but many things have been pressing and the weeks have slipped by. I wanted to tell you, as I have already told you, that while I felt, and do feel, that a return to active academic work in the full realm of pathology (teaching, mastery, broad clinical correlation of all phases of disease, and investigation) after your military service would be wise, still the proper course to take in such decisions is the one that coincides with one's most urgent desire, after the advantages and attractions of each course have been carefully weighed. One may lose time, or even special opportunities by following one's desire, but it is essential to preserve one's own freedom of action, and to accept the risks as part of the high adventure of life. If, after modest and judicious contemplation, one has the confidence in himself that is requisite for the attainment of a high goal, one can happily accept all uncertainties as fair risks in the adventure.

I have great confidence in your future. I would suggest only that, regardless of the particular subject which you may prefer to investigate today or tomorrow, you keep as your guiding star the truth that pathology is the study of all disease, at all ages, in both sexes, in all parts of the body, and from the onset of each disease in the living patient until recovery or death. That is the glory of pathology, and its high adventure in an age of splintering of knowledge and of activity. Loved in that manner, pathology is "meet for immortals."

Warmest regards to you and Mrs. Wood.

Sincerely,

Arnold R. Rich

AMILE GOT HER WAY

I once heard of a little girl, a sweet, pretty child, loved by all who knew her; and we will call her Amile, although any other name would fit just as well. When Amile was four years old, her mother died and Amile's adoring aunts rushed to love and tenderly to raise the little motherless child. Amile's father, a calm, hard working and trusted young fellow, just thirty years old, loyally stood by his innocent child, and raised here in the light of his own charming personality, so Amile had all any child could want in a peaceful home environment, except her own mother.

When Amile was twenty years old her father remarried, leaving Amile with her aunts but never abandoned by him. Amile was jealous of the second wife, just four years her senior, and possibly much more competent and better educated, and more brilliant. Amile had the emotional imagination of a visionary poetess.

In a few years, the father died and Amile received a home and a third of his estate. The second wife faded out of her environment. Amile still had her devoted aunts and grandparents, who had raised her; and had lived their lives for her.

Suddenly Amile disappeared, no one heard from her for years, but one day a short note came with her address; Amile was selling clothing in a distant city, and promised someday to return to her heart broken aunts. Frantic letters went to her, begging her to return. Aunts became ill and more pleas were sent to Amile; and aunts died, but Amile never returned. In her distant retreat Amile married, apparently much beneath her, and in time her husband died, Amile was reduced to dire poverty. Aunts offered help, and year after year begged her to return home but by then Amile must have been too worn and broken to want any of her own loved ones ever to look at her, and see all that her adolescent rebellion had done to her once happy face.

Efforts were made to see Amile but she always was away on a selling trip, or unavailable to a phone call. The most she would do was occasionally to write and give her address. Years passed and then a letter from Amile announced she was living in a back room, over some store on Canal Street, New York City, in a slum area, where almost no one spoke English. Amile stubbornly lived and suffered from the consequences of her own adolescent rebellion - the little money she had inherited from her devoted father, her pride, her family loyalty had all withered within her memory.

Nearly forty years of self-imposed isolation ended one day. Amile, after a long, slow period of painful illness, had been taken by the strange people of Canal Street to the hospital where cancer finally won its slow victory. Amile's last written message was a request to her surviving aunt to have her remains brought home for burial by the side of her mother. Amile, at sixty, passed on, and was forgotten, except for the story I now tell of her life.

Jealousy, a false sense of security, a pathetic and misdirected desire to go it on her own, a poetic longing for independence, an adolescent craving to run away dominated her emotional conduct. She saddened the hearts of some of the loveliest maiden aunts who ever sat, and silently waited for their Amile to return and, in having life as she wanted it, she wrecked both her own happiness and the peace of those who needed her the most.

Her father had stood by her for sixteen years, before he remarried, but to understand her heart breaking way of life, is beyond human comprehension. About all that can be said is that Amile brought sadness to all who loved her and a sad oblivion to her own end. Amile turned down all the hopes and efforts of her father to educate her. The goal of her life was that Amile wanted her own way, and contributed nothing to the happiness of those who were nearest and dearest to her. Possibly she was a victim of her own selfishness, an adolescent who never matured to adulthood.

When called upon by fate and circumstances to make an emotional adjustment she elected to escape and no one can find peace who destroys peace for all who look to them for comfort. Family loyalty has its own reward and escape has its own punishment, as it did for Amile.

Amile is not her name but the rest of my story is true. It all happened some years ago to a cousin of Robert Browning, the poet who "always was more interested in psychology than in action," so Amile could have been a character in one of Browning's plays. She died of cancer in 1939, stranded and alone in a New York City slum on Canal Street.

MARY RAWLINGS WOOD PARSON WEEMS - RAWLINGS

Mary's cousin, Margaret Lenden MacMullen, told me in 1935 that her grandmother, Mary Griselda Weems Rawlings' sister, Maria Weems Lee (daughter of Elizabeth Weems) said that she saw "Parson" Weems when she was a child and that he was her great uncle. Mary Leftwich Rawlings Wood (1903-1935) was a great granddaughter of Richard Henry Rawlings (1818-1855) and Mary Griselda Weems Rawlings (1819-1855) and Mary Griselda Weems Rawlings (1819-1900). Mary Griselda Weems Rawlings was the daughter of Elijah and Mary Andrew Shaw Weems. Elijah Weems born 1790, was a son of William Weems of Calvery County, Maryland, who married July 8, 1784, Rachel Morris. William Weems was a son of David Weems, a brother of Mason Lock Weems, "Parson" Weems. See "Life of Mason Lock Weems" by Rothe. Mason Lock Weems was born in Maryland about 1760 and died in South Carolina in 1825. He began the study of medicine but gave it up and went to London to study for the ministry. Upon his return he preached at different places, apparently not having a regular charge. His "Life of Washington", by which he is best known, first appeared in 1800 and during the nineteenth century ran into more than 70 editions. I have been told that the Weems Bible can be found in the Pratt Library.

The Rawlings family were Episcopallians and the Diggs family were Roman Catholics, but their sons were Episcopallian and Methodist by choice. John William Rawlings was confirmed in Nashville, Tenn., by Bishop Manning, later of New York. They had one or more children who died young and two sons, (a) John William Rawlings, born Feb. 5, 1872 at Charleston, South Carolina, moved to Washington when -- years old and lived at ----- Street, N.W. until -- years old. William Madison and Mary Malinda Smith Leftwich. See: "The Leftwich-Turner Family" ---- by Hopkins, for Leftwich-Smith-Sutton families. This is a well written genealogy and contains much family history of interest to future generations. They had (a) John William Rawlings, Jr.

(1901-1906), who died of pneumonia, and (b) Mary Leftwich Rawlings, Born June 26, 1903 at Nashville Tenn., died December 31, 1935 at Chevy Chase, Maryland, and married August 4, 1926 at Washington, D.C. to John Sumner Wood, born March 2, 1902, and had three fine sons: John Sumner Wood, Jr., 1929; David Eliab Wood, 5th, 1930; and Judson Rawlings Wood, 1934.

(b) Andrew Truman Rawlings, born Jan. 29, 1878, married Elizabeth Duval of Annapolis, Maryland, and had two daughters: Helen Rawlings, married June --, 1929 Walton McNew, and Elizabeth Rawlings.

Both John William Rawlings (1848-1881) and his son John William Rawlings (1872-) were outstanding Christian men of ability. Collector of the port of Charleston, S.C. from 1871 to 1878. This was a dangerous and critical time in the history of Charleston, S.C. Then he became Chief Clerk, under General F. A. Walker, of the 10th U.S. Census with offices on the southwest corner of Corcoran and 13th Street, N.W., with Captain Ellsworth, his wife's brother-in-law, and from 1879 until his death in 1881 lived at 1134 - 6th Street, N.W., near the home of his father-in-law, Samuel Jerome Diggs. He was a conscientious worker. He had overworked in the Census Bureau and because of his weakened condition he caught cold during the inauguration of Garfield and died of pneumonia or consumption in October of 1881 at the age of 33 years. His wife Ann America Diggs was 30 years of age. See: D. C. Register of Wills, Administration-No. 707. He was first entered in the Douglass-Diggs private vault, Glenwood Cemetery and later (April 12, 1882) removed to Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington, D.C. Ann America "Mellie" Diggs married second, 1884, William Rogers Burgess. There were no children by second marriage. In late life she lived with her son at 101 Primrose Street, Chevy Chase, Maryland, and died from a heart attack while visiting James Drinnard in Richmond, Va.

Rawlings cousins at Brandywine, Maryland, were named Drury, Turner, Fowler, Weems, Lockman and Mollie Barrett.

Mary's father, John William Rawlings, born 1872, went to work for the U.S. Interstate Commerce Commission and in 1935 he was Assistant Director of the Bureau of Accounts, which was the highest non-political grade in the I.C.C. He moved his family from Nashville, Tenn. to Washington, D.C. in 19--, and in 1921 he moved to 101 Primrose Street, Chevy Chase, Maryland. The same year, while I was a Freshman at Harvard College, my mother and Mr. Jacobs moved to 5208 - 38th Street, N.W., Chevy Chase, D.C. On August 4, 1922, Virginia Liles, now Virginia Liles Miles, introduced me to Mary Leftwich Rawlings.

Mary's grandmother, Ann America "Mellie" Diggs Rawlings (1851-1926), (who was one year old when my father, Isaac Sumner Wood (1852-1904 was born) was the daughter of Samuel Jerome Diggs, born near Sugar Loaf Mt., Maryland, May 14, 1811, died in Washington, D.C. He was in the Civil War, 69th N.Y. Volunteers, Battle of Antietam, Medal of Honor. Came to N.Y. City when 18 years of age, naturalized, May 31, 1859. Clerk for 42 years in U.S. War Dept. at Old Ford's Theatre - there at time second floor caved in. Mary and I were Executors of her estate and as residuary legatees we received about $7500.00. See: D.C. Administration, No. 41636. Mary Leftwich Rawlings Wood wrote a short story entitled "Great Aunt Margaret (Cecelia Moore) Braids a Rug." the historic parts of which were told to her by this great aunt.

2. Ann America Diggs Rawlings (1851-1926) married, 1863, John William Rawlings (1848-1881), second in 1884 to William Rogers Burgess, a veteran of the Confederate Army. By her first husband she had John William Rawlings (1872-), father of Mary Leftwich Rawlings (1903-1935), and Andrew Rawlings (1878-19--) father of Helen Burgess Rawlings who Brooks C. B. Wood, born at Columbia Hospital, about four months before we moved (June 26, 1941) from 15 (now 13) West Woodbine Street, Chevy Chase, Maryland to Woodbyrne Farm, on the Darnestown to Seneca (Route 112) Road, Montgomery County, Maryland, was the most cheerful of all my six children. To all he demonstrated by his pleasing way of life the old saying - smile and the world smiles with you.

A born leader, he became President of the rural 4-H Club, which had been started in our area by his brothers, Sumner and David. Brooks was an acolyte for ten years at our Christ Church, Rockville, Maryland, President of his Y.P.F., manager of his school paper and a Sunday School teacher, all before he was eighteen years of age. He was graduated from Emory & Henry College, A.B., 1964 and on August 15, 1964, married Miss Georgeann Gude, of Rockville, Maryland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Gude, Jr.

Without Brooks' kind, willing help we could not continue living at Woodbyrne. In 1941 we rebuilt and doubled the size of a house built in about 1890, on our 231 ac. farm, and named our place Woodbyrne: eight bedrooms, 60,000 cubic feet, two tenant houses, etc.

ELIAB WOOD, SR., 1784-1842 (1), son of David (5), was born Oct. 20th, 1784, at Carver, Mass., (Carver Vital Records to 1850, p. 79), died June 14, 1842, at Plymouth, Mass., and was buried at Burial Hill Cemetery, Plymouth, Mass. Epitaphs from Burial Hill, by Kingman, p. 206, states: "1570 - ELIAB WOOD died June 14, 1842, in the 57 year of his age. For our hearts shall rejoice in him because we have trusted in His holy name".

The Eliab Wood, Sr. lot, of about 300 sq. ft., in Burial Hill, Plymouth, Mass., is next to the Hall Monument. Parallel with, and very close to the walk, there are four slate stones. The Eliab Wood stone is on your right; the next stone is that of his first wife, Persis Rickard; Kingman's Epitaphs from Burial Hill, p. 145: "1172 - Persis, wife of Eliab Wood, died Oct. 5th, 1824, in the 38 year of her age. Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee".

Persis Rickard Wood, the mother of Eliab Wood, Jr., married Eliab Wood, Sr., on Oct. 16, 1808, at Plympton, Mass. Plympton Vital Records to 1850, p. 429: "Eliab of Carver and Persis Rickard of Plympton, Int. Oct. 16, 1808". Carver Vital Records to 1850, p. 139: "Eliab and Persis, (Int. Perses) Rickard of Plympton, Nov. 13, 1804 (sic, Int. Oct. 15, 1808)".

Eliab Wood, Sr.'s second wife's stone is next. She was Eleanor Lucas. Carver Vital Records to 1850, p. 139: "Eliab of Plymouth, and Eleanor Lucas, Int. July 29, 1826". Kingman's Epitaphs from Burial Hill, p. 159: - "1254. In memory of Mrs. Eleanor Wood, wife of Eliab Wood, died Jan. 28, 1828; aged 35 years; also their son, Isaac L. Wood, died June 26, 1828, aged five months".

The stone next to Persis Rickard's is that of Eliab Wood's third wife, Betsey Sherman. Kingman's Epitaphs from Burial Hill, p. 197: "1504 - Betsey, wife of Eliab Wood, died Oct. 23, 1839, in the 49th year of her age". (Note that Eliab Wood, Sr.'s third wife was Betsey Sherman, and that Betsey Sears Sherman (1816-1841) was Eliab Wood, Jr.'s first wife.)

Next to his third wife's stone is a bland space where Eliab Wood, Sr.'s fourth wife, Mary Farmer Doten, was buried. By this fourth marriage, there was one child, David B. Wood, born about 1842, died about 1865. My father's sister, Mary Eleanor Wood, told me that David B. Wood (1842-1865) bought a lot at Vine Hill Cemetery, Plymouth, and had his mother and her gravestone removed from Burial Hill, because he could not be buried next to his mother at Burial Hill.

Next to her vacant lot is the stone of Eliab Wood, Sr.'s second wife, Eleanor Lucas, and behind her stone is the stone of Betsey Sears Sherman, the first wife of Eliab Wood, Jr. Kingman's Epitaphs from Burial Hill, p. 203: "1551. In memory of Betsey S., Wife of Eliab Wood, Jr., who died June 13, 1841, aged 25 years".

Persis Rickard, the first wife of Eliab Wood, Sr., was born: Plympton Vital Records to 1850, p. 176: "Persis Harlow Rickard, ch. Isaac (q.v.) and Lydia (Vaughan), Aug. 27, 1786". Her full name was "Persis Harlow Rickard". She died Oct. 5, 1824, at 8 Winter Street, Plymouth, Mass. Her parents were Isaac & Lydia (Vaughan) Rickard, born July 25, 1754, died April 19, 1826, m. March 12, 1778. See: Plympton Vital Records to 1850, ps. 160, 163, 368, 372 and 506, and Carver Vital Records to 1850, p. 176. Isaac Rickard (1754-1826) was a soldier of the Revolutionary War. Eliab Wood, Sr. et ux Persis Rickard moved from Carver (then Plympton) to Plymouth about 1816-17, and Aunt Mary Eleanor Wood, told me that her father, Eliab Wood, Jr., often told her that he was about five years old when his parents moved to No. 8 Winter St., Plymouth, Mass.

Mary Eleanor Wood (1855-1931), sister of Isaac Sumner Wood (1852-1904), and daughter of Eliab Wood, Jr. told me that her father often spoke about there having been four Davids, and that a chair, which I have, once belonged to the two Eliabs and four Davids, and that her father said this chair was made by the first David Wood (1651-1717). She had heard about the four wives of Eliab Wood, Sr.; that they lived after 1817, at No. 8 Winter St., Plymouth; that she remembered David B. Wood, and knew that her grandfather, Eliab Wood, Sr., was a fisherman and that later in life he caulked ships. His son, George K. Wood, who married Mary F. Davis, built No. 2, Mt. Pleasant St., Plymouth, Mass.

ELIAB WOOD, JR. (1811-1890) (2), son of Eliab (1), was born Dec. 26, 1811, at Carver, Mass., died, Aug. 22, 1890, at Plymouth, Mass. He moved from Carver (Then Plympton) to Plymouth about 1817.

At Plymouth he resided at No. 8 Winter St. from 1817 to 1833, then at No. 244 Sandwich Road (Chiltonville Road, above Hobshole) from 1845 to 1885, then at No. 19 Franklin St., until his death in 1890. He took no part in the Civil War. -Occupation: Seaman, caulker of vessels and truck gardener. Mr. David Holmes, son of David Holmes by his second wife, knew Eliab Wood, Jr., and told me that Eliab Wood, Jr. was a very much liked gentleman, - quiet, honest and a true friend. Many other people in Plymouth have told me about how much Eliab Wood, Jr., was respected by all who knew him and that all of his life he was known as "Eliab Wood, Jr."

In 1833, Eliab Wood, Jr. married Betsey Sears Sherman, b. May 6, 1816, and died June 13th, 1841. Betsey Sears (Sherman) Wood had two children: Eliab Thomas Wood, b. Nov. 8, 1836, d. Sept. 7, 1837; and Eliab Thomas Wood, b. March 14, 1839, and died May 27, 1862. Eliab Wood, Jr., used to take his son, Eliab Thomas, with him on fishing trips to "The Banks", and they often would be gone for over six months.

On Nov. 23, 1845, Eliab Wood, Jr. married (2d) Phebe Thomas Rider, at Chiltonville, Mass. She was born at Chiltonville, Aug. 24, 1820, and died at Plymouth, Mass., Sept. 3, 1898. She, Eliab Wood, Jr., and two of their children are buried at Vine Hill Cemetery (Lot No. 1208), Plymouth, Mass.

Phebe Thomas Rider (1820-1898) was the daughter of Ezekiel Rider, b. Dec. 25, 1781, d. March 15, 1848, m. 1803, Mary "Polly" Holmes, b. 1783, d. March 14, 1843. Ezekiel & Mary Holmes lived, married, died and were buried at Chiltonville, Mass. Their grave stones will be found in the graveyard behind the Chiltonville Congregational Church. Mary Holmes Rider was the dau. of Peter Holmes, b. 1756, at Plymouth, d. at Port Au Prince, and was buried at sea, Sept. 15, 1794, m. June 18, 1778, Mary Brooks, - born, 1756, d. Sept. 2, 1829, buried at Burial Hill. Kingman's Epitaphs from Burial Hill, p. 71: "654. In memory of PETER HOLMES who died at Port Au Prince, Sept. 15, 1794, aged 38 yrs." Also "MARY HOLMES consort of Peter who died Sept. 2, 1829, aged 73 years". See: Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, Vol. 23, as to the marriages of Peter Holmes to Mary Brooks, and Jane Swift to Samuel Rider. I have been unable to find any references to the parents of Mary Brooks. Ezekiel Rider was the son of Samuel Rider, b. 1741, d. 1804, m. April 12, 1768, at Plymouth, to Jane or Joan Swift, b. June 6, 1744, and died after 1834, at Chiltonville, Mass. She was buried along Sandy Gutter Road. Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, Vol. 23, p. 495, gives copy of "Plymouth Church Records", which states that on "April 12, 1768 - were married.

"Nathaniel Cornish and Abigail Swift.

"Samuel Rider and Jane Swift.
"Sisters both at once."

Jane and Abigail were daughters of Joshua Swift, b. Feb. 14, 1717-8, d. ----, m. March 21, 1738-9, to Jane Faunce of Plymouth, Mass.

THE ELIAB WOOD, JR. BIBLE

I, John Sumner Wood, Sr., inherited from my father, Isaac Sumner Wood (1852-1904), the HOLY BIBLE, which had belonged to Eliab Wood, Jr., and to which I have given the name: "The Eliab Wood, Jr. Bible". On July 23, 1929, I gave this Bible to my son, John Sumner Wood, Jr., conditioned upon this Eliab Wood, Jr. Bible being passed on from father named Sumner, to son named Sumner, and if there be no boy by that name, then to my oldest male descendant.

The Holy Bible of Eliab Wood, Jr., was printed in New York City, in 1844. I had it rebound, June 14, 1928, in Boston, Mass., the original back and sides being pasted on over the new binding.

In Re Eliab Wood, Jr. (1811-1890)

In the Carver, Mass. Vital Records to 1850, at page 79, one will read "Carver Births - WOOD, Eliab, ch. David, Jr. and Elizabeth, Oct. 20, 1784", and that is correct. I wrote to my Aunt Mary E. Wood, and she replied in a letter which lies here before me and which I shall quote: "My father was named Eliab because his father was Eliab. He did not have any middle name. There was a time when Wood was changed to Atwood but went back to Wood, think it was in my father's day; have heard him tell about it." Eliab Wood, Jr. had his name "Eliab Wood, Jr." put on his first wife's gravestone. In his Bible he wrote, "Eliab Wood Born Dec. 26th, 1811"

THE WIVES OF
ELIAB WOOD, SR. & ELIAB WOOD, JR.

Correction of genealogical errors: - "The Doty (Doten) Family in America" by E. A. Doty and "Ancient Landmarks of Plymouth" by W. T. Davis, contain incorrect accounts of the wives of Eliab Wood, Sr. and Jr. See Mayflower Society, D. C. State No. 440, General No. 8008 for my papers which corrected the errors contained in the above-named books.

I shall quote the incorrect account as given by W. T. Davis in Ancient Landmarks of Plymouth, Part II, p. 293:-

"Eliab, . . . M. Betsey Sherman; Phebe, m. Thomas Rider . . . He m., 2d and 3d, Eleanor Lucas and Betsey (Sears) Sherman, wid. of Thomas, without children, etc." At page 215, Davis correctly writes: "Ezekiel Rider, son of 6th Samuel, m. 1803, Polly Holmes, and had Phebe Thomas, m. Eliab Wood".

During the year 1838, Eliab Wood, Sr. was married to Betsey Sherman, and Eliab Wood, Jr. was married to Betsey Sears Sherman, but according to Mr. E. A. Doty, Eliab Wood, Sr., in 1838, was married to his daughter-in-law, Betsey Sears Sherman, and Eliab Wood, Sr.'s son, Eliab Wood, Jr., was married to his stepmother. When I tried to join the "Society of Mayflower Descendants", I was minus a grandmother, but with the aid of Kingman's Epitaphs from Burial Hill, photographs of gravestones, Eliab and Phebe Thomas (Rider) Wood marriage certificate, Carver Vital Records to 1850, "The Ezekiel and Mary (Holmes) Rider Bible", "The Eliab Wood, Jr. Bible", Plympton Vital Records to 1850, and a letter from my Aunt Mary Eleanor Wood, the daughter and only living child of Eliab and Phebe Thomas (Rider) Wood, I was able to prove that:-

Eliab Wood, Sr., b. Oct. 20, 1784, d. June 14, 1842, m. Oct. 16, 1806 or 1808, at Plympton, Mass. to Persis Harlow Rickard, b. Aug. 27, 1786, d. Oct. 5, 1824. One of their children was Eliab Wood, Jr., born Dec. 26, 1811, d. Aug. 22, 1890. Eliab Wood, Jr. m. Betsey Sears Sherman, b. May 6th, 1816, d. June 13, 1841, (Sears was her middle name, because I have a "Sampler" which she made when she was thirteen years of age, and which contains the name, "Betsey Sears Sherman".) Eliab Wood, Jr.'s second wife was Phebe Thomas Rider, b. Aug. 24, 1820, d. Sept. 3, 1898. They were married Nov. 23, 1845. Phebe Thomas Rider was married only once and "Thomas" was her middle name. See: Marriage certificate, and her initials

(875) JOHN A. WOOD's family, of N.C.

Georgia and Texas, apparently reached Texas about 1850, after a Major Wood of Woodville, Tyler County, Texas, and after the ancestor of Governor George T. Wood of Texas. See: George (240). His wife, Lucretia Lewter, nicknamed "Crisse", was the daughter of Giles and Sally Lewter (Luter) of Northampton Co., N.C., mentioned as "Crisse" in her father's will probated in 1819. Her tombstone (she died in Tyler Co., Texas, 1864) in Town Bluff Cemetery, Tyler Co., Texas and the Texas Census for 1860 relate that she was born in N.C. She was age 70 in the 1860 Tyler Co., Texas Census, so probably erroneously listed as age 65 in the 1850 Census of Earle County, Georgia, because her daughter Sarah Matilda (Wood) Reed was born in N.C., on May 8, 1812 and died Feb. 24, 1871.

The 1820 census of Northampton Co., N.C. lists a John Wood and a John Wood, Jr., probably father and son. John Wood, Sr. had sons James H. Wood and John Wood (will probated 1826, Book 4, p. 16). This John Sr.'s wife was named Sary. Deed Book Part 7, p. 26 shows that this John Sr., in 1814, had a son James H. Wood and a son-in-law, William Wade, and John Sr.'s will names as sole executor "my worthy friend, James H. Wood". The will of Elias Lewter, Oct. 6, 1809, Northampton Co., N.C., names executors: Giles Lewter, Exum Holleman, John Wood. This John Sr.'s will, dated May 24, 1826, proves that John A. and Lucretia (Lewter) Wood moved to Bainbridge, Decatur Co., Georgia, after 1826. The 1830 Census of Decatur Co., Ga. lists a John Wood, four sons and two daughters, and John A. Wood, of that place, had four sons and two daughters. Decatur Co., Va., Superior Court 1828-1844 land records lists: John A., Wm. G. (presumably William Giles Wood), Jesse, Joseph, Jacob. Before 1840 John A. Wood moved to Blakely, Early Co., Ga. See: Census of 1840 for John A. and W. G. (William Giles Wood). The Albany Patriot of May 6, 1843, mentions a Blakely Co., Early Co., Ga., sale "for benefit of heirs of John A. Wood" of land on Sawhatchie Creek.

Miss Bess Wood, of Dallas, Texas, in 1959 wrote that her oldest brother, the oldest grandson of John A. Wood's son, Matthew Jackson Wood said that his grandfather told him that John A. Wood lived in Bainbridge, Ga., and Miss Wood adds: "I believe that this Matthew Jackson Wood was born in Bainbridge, since he was born in 1830. John A. Wood signed the will of John Read (Russel Read's father) Of Gadsden Co., Florida, May 11, 1832. The land John Read owned was almost within sight of the Florida-Georgia line." Miss Bess Wood, continues:

The will of another Aaron Wood was probated, July 21, 1834, in York District, S.C., mentioning wife Matilda, children: Achsah, Martha and Matilda; also son Joseph, son Resin. My Mary-dear was a gentle, calm, kind and loving wife and mother, a beloved Christian character every instant of her whole life.

In 1936, my Aunt Edith E. Byrne wrote: "Peggy Angle Wood, whom I hope to soon see and love as I did Mary, must have her hands full furnishing food for her nest full of hungry birds," meaning Sumner, Jr., age seven, and David Eliab, age five, whom Peggy (1) and I took with us on our honeymoon to Cape Cod, Massachusetts. Judson, age two, had to be left with Mother and Daddy J., because he was in the midst of whooping cough.

From Wood Genealogy, compiled in 1937 by Leland N. (3) Wood: "One of the first of the family to emigrate to America was William Wood, who is believed to have come with his brother John from Derbyshire, England, in 1635, and to have settled at Concord, Mass. By his wife Margaret he is known to have had two children, Michael and Ruth, and probably Abigail and others.

"Many others of the name emigrated to America in the eighteenth century, among them were the brothers, Jeremiah and John Wood of Massachusetts about 1705, of whom the first was the father by his wife Dorothy Benet of Sarah, Elizabeth, Joseph, Lucy, Bennet, Jeremiah, Jonathan and Eliphalet, and the second was the father by his wife Elizabeth Buckminster of John, Mary, Elizabeth, Benjamin, Thomas, Joseph and Samuel; the brothers William, Michael, James, and Andrew Woods of the South before 1724, of whom William made his home in North Carolina and was the father of John, William, Samuel, Elizabeth and Mary, and Michael resided in Virginia and is said to have had William, Michael, John, Richard, Archibald and Andrew; Robert Woods, possibly brother of above named emigrants William, Michael, James and Andrew, who settled in Virginia before 1730 and was the father of John, Middleton, George, Robert, Hugh, Josiah and several daughters . . .

"John Wood is said to have emigrated from England to Virginia in 1655 and to have settled in Westmoreland County, and is believed to have been the progenitor of most of the southern families of the name" of Wood.

Some of the above quoted paragraphs is pure speculation. J.S.W.

In 1769 John Woods and wife Lettas purchased Albemarle Co. land. Wit: Archibald Woods. This John's will, 1790, names wife Lettice. Wit: George Woods, Archibald Woods. Note: The Woods appear to extend back to Ireland, and apparently there were not many of them who came to America and possibly most of those who did come followed some family leader from Ireland to Pennsylvania. Finding it difficult to adjust to city, or community life, and often not, being fishermen, or probably not skilled in any trade, they drifted to the western frontier of Penn., then to the backlands of Virginia, then to Ky., N.C., S.C., Tenn., as they passed through their trading stage into an agricultural stage. The few who came had many children and left very few records in the Southern States.

June 2, 1947, Logan Utah, Elizabeth Griffin, children: Katherine, b. 1948, John Griffin, b. Oct. 2, 1952, Marian, b. 1954. Genealogist and contributor to this Index. See: James (88); John (140, 843). Stephen (117) in 1959 wrote that Emma Wood Austin wrote to Beder Wood, and Stephen (117) insists the confusion in the line of John (140, 843) and James (88) was caused by Mr. Beder Wood, who had interviewed Capt. "Jerry" Wood (Jeremiah 3, James 2, John 1), a steamboat captain on the upper Miss. River. Dr. Enoch A. Wood, brother of Capt. "Jerry", wrote that their father was John who came from N.J. to Ky. where he was a surveyor. A record that belonged to Mary Wood Cohenor (John 2, John 1) states that James 2 was born in Mason Co., Ky., and reaffirms that his father was John 1. The contention of Stephen (117) is that James (88) was not the father of James 2 and John 2, as stated by Mr. Beder Wood.

SOME SOUTHERN FAMILIES
WOOD - WOODS EXCHANGE

SAMUEL WOODS (Three different contemporary persons).

I, James Woods sold land (Albemarle Co. Va., Deed Bk. 3) to Samuel Woods, a storekeeper, both, in 1761, of St. Anns, Amherst Co., Va. In 1763 Samuel Woods bt. lots in Charlottesville, Va. and the same day Richard Woods bt. lots in Charlottesville, Va., both then referred to as being of Albemarle Co., Va. The first wife of Samuel Woods was Mary, daughter of James Woods, all of Amherst Co., Deed Bk. A, p. 21, 1761. The 1781 will of Samuel Woods recites that he was of Rockfish, Amherst Co., Va., and willed to his wife Sarah their Amherst homeplace, to eldest son James, land in Albemarle Co., to son William, tracts in Amherst Co. In Jan. 1781 Samuel's father James was still living. In June 1781, James Woods, of Amherst Co., willed to wife Barbara for life, . . . to grandsons James Woods and William Woods, and mentions that Samuel Woods was deceased. The Bible of Capt. Benjamin and Mary (Woods) Harris, recites that Samuel Woods was b. May 1727, his daughter Mary, b. 1767, that he died Jan. 10, 1781, and his wife Mary died April 1779. Mid-Continent Magazine, Vol. 6, No. 2, June 1895, "The account book of James W. . . ." and father Samuel Woods' inventory were returned to Amherst Co., June 2, 1783.

II. Now for a second Samuel Woods, a Rev. War soldier, who outlived all of his children, moved from Botetourt Co., Va., to Mercer Co., Ky. and died in Ky. in 1826. He had a son, Samuel Woods, no doubt born in Albemarle Co. where his parents lived until 1766, and this Samuel Woods, Jr., may have been 20 years old when his parents moved to Mercer Co.,

Ky. Prior to 1791 Samuel Woods Jr. married his Uncle David Woods' widow, and died 1802. His son James Harvey Woods, was father of Rev. Neander M. Woods, d. 1860. W. H. Miller wrote that Samuel Woods Sr. b. 1738, d. 1826, m. Margaret, had Samuel Woods who married Mary (McAfee) Woods, widow of his Uncle David Woods. They had James Harvey Woods, b. 1792, m. Sarah, who had sons Samuel Dickson Woods; William Harvey Woods; Thomas Clelland Woods m. Ann Jackson; William C. Woods, b. 1853, m. 1883, Annie Bogle, and had Joseph, b. 1884; Wm. Clarence, b. 1885; Ellis Jackson, b. 1889; Nathaniel Dedman Woods; Butler Woods; Charles Walker Woods; Edward Pason Woods.

Samuel Wood, Augusta Co., Va., Court Judgments: 1769 Samuel Woods and Margaret, his wife vs. Wm. Simpson and James Robinson; Samuel Woods and Margaret, his wife, late Margaret Robinson, Adm. of Wm. Robinson, dec'd. So, Samuel Woods married a widow, Margaret (-----) Robinson, after 1767, Botetourt Co., Va. Deed Bk. 1, 1770, Samuel Woods of Botetourt Co. and Margaret his wife. To make matters still more intriguing there was another ----- Woods with wife Margaret, who, by 1764 had been Margaret Gamble, and took on another Gamble by marrying John Cawley. Margaret Gamble - 1768, was Margaret wife of Joseph Gamble in 1760. Augusta Co., Va.: Vol. 11, 1767, Cawley vs. Patterson. John Cawley and Margaret, his wife, late Margaret Woods. Possibly this Woods passed on, prior to 1762. From this sideline one may guess that Samuel Woods' wife was no "Gamble". Down in Mercer Co., Ky., David Woods, 1786, wills to his wife Mary Woods, to sons John & Billy and dau. Nancy & Betsy, he having had two children by his first wife and three by 2d. wife. In 1798 Samuel Woods Jr. and James McAfee were guardians for orphans of David Woods, Nancy, Billy and Betsy. The Will (Bk. V, p. 277) of Samuel Woods, Jr. is dated: 1816, Mercer Co., Ky. Pension records of Samuel Wood, Sr., Lt. Cont'l Army, 1776, were sworn to by Col. James Woods, and by 1823 Samuel Woods, Sr. was in his 85th year, and had no living children. He, Samuel Woods, Sr., died Feb. 3, 1826. To make the name Samuel Woods more complicated we now move to a third Samuel Woods. This No. III was --

SOUTHERN WOOD AND WOODS

Most genealogical data on a Southern family comes from a family Bible, and since most family Bibles record only parents and their children, the result is that we usually get no more than a two, or three, generation span. The majority of these Wood-Woods Bible records refer to people born during the nineteenth century and recorded in Bibles printed after 1800, or written down on sheets of paper by some old maid aunt whose precious family records also may have included only first, second, and third cousins of her particular generation, with no clue to great grandparents.

After some given names I have added a mass of names and dates for Southern families, so a searcher for a Samuel, Aaron, or any other given name, may find clues which will enable him to work out his family line. Actually all Southern data will have to be read to fit links together, although in most instances each name of a head of a family born prior to about 1800 will have a number and a place of residence, although it may be no more than a name from the 1790 Census, so a searcher should first look through the given names which are numbered, and then read all data on our Southern Families. It would be an endless job to number each Southern Wood, or Woods, and impossible for me to fit them together into any family group.

It must have taken a hundred years to work out the descendants of Henry Wood of Middleboro. A number of Henry's descendants are scattered through North Carolina but remember that there were about fifty emigrants named Wood in America prior to about 1700. Many of the Wood and Woods frontiersmen of Pennsylvania and Virginia owned no Bible, or land of record, and left no probate or church records, and many land records and church records were destroyed by fire long before, during, or after the Civil War. D.A.R. records are most helpful but the best source of genealogical material on the Southern branches of these families is The Wood-Woods Exchange, edited by Katie-Prince Ward Esker, who kindly consented to my using her data.

Note by John Sumner Wood, Sr., on Theophilus Wood (1). Long prior to 1898, and probably* before 1852, some elderly person in this line passed on a "family tradition" to the effect that this Theophilus Wood, b. 1604, came on the Mayflower, in 1620, as one of Carver's servants; that this nephew of Carver, named Wimmer, Carver took to Belgium from Ireland, in 1616, and that this nephew later changed his name from Wimmer to Wood. There is no known record of anyone named Wimmer, or Wood, having been on, or connected with, the Mayflower.

It is believed that Theophilus Wood, in 1641, married Lucinda Flood, and had Abner, b. July 4, 1626; who had James, b. Sept. 6, 1653; who had Samuel, b. Aug. 10, 1680; who had Simeon, b. Jan. 1, 1710; who had Lewis, b. April, 6, 1740, whom Jackson B. Wood, in 1898, at the age of 78, says was in the Boston Tea Party; who had Abner, b. March 17, 1765; who had Daniel, b. July 1, 1790; who had Jackson B. Wood, b. March 17, 1820, and he passed on the story that "John Carver went to Ireland in 1616 and took a sister's son (named Wimmer) home with him to Belgium. "The boy was all the time making something out of wood, so the name Wood was applied to him . . ."; this Jackson Wood had Andrew, b. Sept. 19, 1852. Theophilus is said to have had three sons, James, 5 sons and 4 daughters, Samuel, 7 sons and 6 daughters, Simeon, six sons and 6 daughters, one was blind, Lewis one (or seven) sons and Abner, 7 sons.

Mrs. Alice Wood Camp, of Victory, N.Y., in 1898, wrote that her father Samuel C. Wood (1800-1877 of Scipio, N.Y.) had brothers Theophilus, Simeon and Daniel. Mrs. Camp also wrote that her grandfather was Abner Wood, of Orange Co., N.Y., and that Jackson B. Wood had obtained this data from the Bible of his great-grandfather, Lewis Wood, b. 1740.

In 1957, Mrs. Elva Louise (Flehart) Pinkounis, b. 1905, Lockeford, Calif., mother of Evangeline Georgia (Pinkounis) Bird, or Arkansas, wrote that Abner Wood, March 17, 1765, had a son Abner B. Wood, b. Oct. 16, 1798, New York City, m. 1821, in Virginia to Nancy Stone Calvert, and had George Dodson Wood, b. Jan. 21, 1829, d. 1905, m. 1848, Lucy Childers; who had Job Albert Wood, b. 1859, Sutter County, Calif., M. 1886, Mary Elizabeth Barieau, and had Mary Lorena Wood, b. 1887, m. 1904 Frank C. Flehart of Kansas City, Kansas, parents of Elva Louise Flehart Pinkounis.

The above Abner Benjamin Wood, b. 1798, had Mills Calvert, b. 1824, William Otterbine, b. 1826, George Dodson, b. 1829, Iral Halstead, b. 1833, Jobe K., b. 1837 and Abner B., b. 1839 (daughters omitted).

The above George Dodson Wood, b. 1829, had sons Mills Co., Henry L., Job Albert; and Job Albert had sons Joseph Albert and George Alexander.

Mrs. Pinkounis, of Tracy, Calif., relates that her mother had a family record which said:

"1. Theophilus Wood arrived on the Mayflower at Plymouth Rock on December 22, 1620 . . ."

I know of no record that remotely supports this "family tradition". Possibly I should add that Mr. Jackson B. Wood, in 1899, wrote to Mr. Beder Wood, that all of his family records he had turned over to his grandson, Mr. Hugh Jackson Wood, of West Detroit, Michigan. Family traditions are fascinating, not always accurate, yet none can be branded as false, merely because they cannot be established of record.

- (281) Thomas Wood, Farmer, Soldier and Minister, of Lunenburg and Halifax Counties, Virginia. The following was written in 1959, by E. B. Wood, Sr., of Oak Hill, W. Va.:-
- "The first knowledge we have of the Rev. Thomas Wood is that he and Miss Mary Moore of Lunenburg County, Virginia, were married in this county in 1774 (or 1775) by Parson Craig of the Episcopal Church. In 1780 he enlisted in the Virginia Militia while a resident of Lunenburg County and served in several battles of the Revolutionary War . . . He was engaged in the Siege of Yorktown.
- "Thomas Wood bought land in what is now the Rodgers Chapel Community of Halifax County, Virginia, September 28, 1807, at which time the deed to this land states that he was a resident of Lunenburg County . . .
- "Leonard Baker was a Baptist minister, and founder and first pastor of the Musterfield Baptist Church of Halifax County (this church dissolved in 1884 to become the Scottsburch Baptist Church), and was located several miles west of the Thomas Wood plantation. After the death of Rev. Leonard Baker, Thomas Wood served as pastor of the Musterfield Baptist Church . . .

"Rev. Thomas Wood died on his Halifax County plantation in 1824. In his will he named the following children: William, John, Thomas, Rebecca, Mary Thomas, Elizabeth Ligon, James and Elijah B. Wood . . .

"Mary Wood, widow of Rev. Thomas Wood, in 1839 applied for and was awarded a Revolutionary War Pension (Va. W. #6568). In her application she stated she was eighty years of age. She died in 1848. . . The family cemetery, near the original home place, is beside the road that now runs from Mt. Laurel by the Rodgers Chapel Baptist Church towards Scottsburg, Mary Wood in her will devised her property to her single daughter Rebecca and her son Elijah Baker Wood.

"Elijah B. Wood, youngest son of Thomas and Mary (Moore) Wood was born in Lunenburg County, Virginia, came with her parents to Halifax County when about five years old. On March 9, 1840, he married Miss Lucinda Epps, daughter of William and Lucy P. Epps, also of Halifax County. They reared four children: Mary, Thomas William, John Robert and Elijah Baker Wood, Jr. Elijah Baker Wood, Sr. died of jaundice on May 30, 1853, when only fifty-one years of age. His widow died on August 28, 1905. Mary married James Allen of Clover, Virginia, where they . . . reared three children, James, Jr., Betty and Harvey. John Robert or "Bob" Wood, as he was known, married Nannie Allen, a sister of James Allen, and resided in South Boston, Virginia, where they reared four children, William Thomas, George, Mary Sue and Cora.

"Elijah Baker Wood, Jr., always called Baker Wood, was born August 5, 1852. . . acquired title to most of his grandfather's original land and on September 28, 1876, married Miss Mary Elizabeth Burneson, daughter of Samuel and Rebecca Burneson of the Mount Laurel Community. Baker Wood and his good wife reared a family of ten children: Thomas William, Samuel (died in infancy), Dora, Ida Martha, John Baker, James C., Mary Elizabeth, Essie, Clarence and Lucinda Keifer.

"Lucinda Keifer Wood, youngest child of Baker and Mary (Burneson) Wood, married Samuel G. Hatcher and resided in the old Baker and Mary Wood homestead.

"Elma Burneson Wood, son of Thomas William and Stella (Bomar) Wood, who compiled this information, was born near the original Thomas Wood home site, but his parents moved to Crystal Hill, Virginia, (about ten miles away) when he was about seven years of age and where his father, who is past eighty-one years of age, now (1959) resides.
